THE PARSON'S NOSE... was originally a private house and garden owned by the Marquis of Downshire. Records show that in the late 1800's, the Spence family turned their home into a licensed public house and it has been a fine hostelry ever since.

LOCAL HERO
Our wine list is supplied exclusively by JN Wines from Crossgar. Established by James Nicholson in 1977, JN Wines is considered one of the best, and was recently awarded IWC Regional Wine Merchant of the Year.

HILLSBOROUGH CASTLE
The late Georgian mansion was built in the 1770s by Wills Hill, first Marquis of Downshire. Rumour has it that Edward and Mrs Simpson would row across the lake for a sneaky rendezvous at The Parson's Nose.

SAN MARZANO TOMATOES

We are all about local, but even we know we can't top San Marzano tomatoes for pizza sauce. Grown in rich volcanic soil near Mount Vesuvius, they are a variety of plum tomato but pointier and sweeter. An essential ingredient for Neopolitan style pizza.
